

greenbelt art walk

thursday, may 22, 6-9pm

three venues, one inspired evening!

greenbelt community center

15 crescent Road, 240-542-2062

new deal café

113 centerway, 301-474-5642

greenbelt arts center

123 centerway, 301-441-8770

6-9pm

Screening Party: Landscapes and Cityscapes, community center, rm 204.

Enjoy two fifteen minute programs of experimental shorts by internationally-known video artists. Featuring new and recent works by GATE member/Riverdale filmmaker Chris Lynn. Recommended for ages 18+. Help yourself to some popcorn! Screenings will rotate and seat at any time. Sponsored by Greenbelt Access Television, Inc. Free.

6-9pm

Artists in Residence Studio Open House, community center, third floor.

Be inspired. Be very inspired. The Community Center is proud to host the studios of 10 visual artists working in a wide variety of media. Meet the family, and see what amazing things they can do with mud and packing tape! Pottery and other work available for purchase. Sponsored by the Greenbelt Recreation Department and Greenbelt Pottery. Free.

6-9pm

Art Gallery exhibition: Grave Gardens - Photography by Aimee Helen Koch, community center, rm 112. Reality and illusion co-mingle in our gardens of memory. Flowers of plastic, ceramic and silk mix with cut blooms and tender sprouts in this beautiful series of color photographs. While visiting the gallery, pick up a flier about related activities happening at the Artful Afternoon on Sunday, June 1. Exhibit continues through June 8. Sponsored by the Greenbelt Recreation Department. Free.

6-9pm

Historical exhibition: Sublime on a Dime - Fashions from the Great Depression and WWII, community center, rm 110. Three-dimensional artifacts from the museum's collection such as dresses, hats, purses, gloves, shoes, sewing implements, jewelry, and historic photographs illustrate how Greenbelt women adapted their existing clothing with an eye toward practicality as well as current fashion, creating a style all their own. Learn about home sewing, the influence of Hollywood, the importance of accessories and ensembles, WWII and rationing, leisurewear and children's clothes. Exhibit is ongoing. Sponsored by the Greenbelt Museum. Free.

6-9pm

Opening receptions for group art exhibitions. Greenbelt arts center and new deal café.

Details TBA. Free.

7-9pm

Life Drawing Drop-In, community center, rm 116.

Tonight only! Join the Community Center Life Drawing class and work from the nude model. Easels and drawing materials provided. Open to ages 18+. $5.00. Sponsored by the Greenbelt Recreation Department.